Our whole family loves this game. It is a great option for families with small children and older children as well...like ours. We also enjoy the Bird Bingo game. Even though they are both essentially the same game the wonderful artwork on the pieces engages all of us and makes the game fun. Quality materials and great craftsmanship. This game will last.

This was a Christmas gift for two grandchildren. They love it! We were visiting and played it MANY times with them. Made very well and should be long lasting! They loved trying to pronounce the names of the BUGS. They are ages 5 and 7. Six would play at a time which was just fine.

This was a gift to a family with children aged 7 and 9. Both parents are scientists. The mom, a biologist, loved the explanations provided about each bug. The quality of the game materials is very good, and the artwork is marvelous. I hope more of these games will be forthcoming--maybe seashells, reptiles, or fish, for example? Definitely recommended.

This was a present for my two young grandchildren, and it has become a favorite family game. Their mom and dad enjoy playing it with them, and the kids can play just among themselves as well. This is a fun gift, and I highly recommend it.

We already have the Bird Bingo, and my 2 boys (5 years old) love it! So it's no surprise that they love this one too. I love the quality of the game itself, especially the illustrations and the board. I would buy other versions of this game if they come out with them. It's fun and educational, and larger (in size and with number of boards and cards) than other bingo sets we've bought. Love it!!!

Fun, educational and beautiful. We love that up to 12 players can play so it is great fun for with friends and/or extended family.

Our granddaughter loves bugs, so this was a perfect gift. The illustrations are exquisite!

Great game even for those that can't read yet. My mom reader matches pictures and is memorizing the names .
