The Secret: Fight Child Protective Services And Win

Synopsis

If your child comes to school with a black eye or a big cut, the teacher could suspect child abuse and report you to Child Protective Services. The next step is for them to take your child from you, because to them, you are GUILTY. People are often shocked to discover that Child Protective Services Can take your child. You can lose your child forever. Relatives don't always get custody of the child when he or she is taken. If you or a family member have been accused of abusing or neglecting your child, this book is for you. Written by one of California's premier Juvenile Dependency Attorneys, it is your road map through the legal maze to get your child back.
