As always DK Publishing did not disappoint. Great for Marrakech AND all the side trips we took.

This book was clear, easy to use, portable and included a map and tips for getting around as well as customs to be aware of for us foreigners. It also had restaurant and shop listings. The info is the same type that you would find online but nicely packaged in a compact book that you can read on a short flight and then carry with you to get around. It wouldn't be for someone who wanted to backpack or do anything more exotic than stay in a riad for 3 days and see, literally, the top 10 sights in Marrakech.

I like the top 10 format. It focuses the priorities and then makes the visit easy. The Marrakech book worked well for us and we had a great trip as a result. We had a guide but due to this book we added a few sights the guide would have skipped that we were glad to see.

Exactly what you need for a short trip to Marrakech. The downside is that you need a wifi connection to see the maps, something that is not easy to find there.

My wife and I swear by these guide books wherever we go. They have interesting and helpful information and the pocket map has proven to be invaluable in numerous cities. Worth the price and we'll order more for future travel.

Wonderful little book. Concise and packed with loads of information including a handy folded map. It is just the right size to take with you while traveling.

Really helpful.

We love all these "Top 10" books -- quick to find your way around new cities.
