Customer Reviews

Great book for my little ones to help them understand better about daddy being away.

My wife is a social worker and unfortunately for many children in foster care this is not an uncommon topic.

Very well done. The boxed comments are good information as is the back matter. A must for all libraries. Recommended for school libraries.

The author only used 22 pages to tell a story that felt like a lot of things were left untold. The hero of the story, a bunny named Sketch, witnesses his father's arrest. The rest tumbles out like a story told by a maiden aunt. It was good. But it could have been much better.

Simple explanations...works well with children. It helps tremendously in explaining and helping children to understand. I will use it over and over...

Great book

Great book for children going through this tough experience. I'm a trauma therapist and use it for my kids at work.

Bought this as a gag gift, but it actually has some good points for kids who have a parent in jail.
