Fallen by AJ Messenger is the second book in the Guardian Series. The first book, Guardian was released in 2014 and was awesome. I loved the characters and the story that the author created. It was one of the first indie books I had discovered and I was amazed at how great it was. I had been very impatiently waiting for the next books in the series. I was thrilled that Fallen was released this summer and that the third book will be out in the fall. Fallen continues to follow Declan and Alexander as they explore their relationship and Declan learns more about Alexander's world. We learn a little more about Declan's family and see a little bit more mature version of Declan. Her relationships with her mom and friends are really great to see in the book. I loved seeing Finn and Liz again. They are awesome. Declan is smart, caring, hardworking, a great friend and willing to do what is necessary. Alexander is a smokin hot guy from Australia (just think of the awesome accent). He is sweet and thoughtful, witty, compassionate, intense and over protective. Their relationship grows and so does the danger. This book has it all, romance, passion, friendship, mystery and suspense. I highly recommend the Guardian Series. I can't wait for the next book in the series. Five STARS * * * * *

So this book was entertaining, it had a Twilight New Moon vibe to it but not at all as drawn out. And then there was a plot twist I didn't see coming and was gladly surprised I didn't see it coming...All in all it was a good good book. Not quite original cause alot of parts reminded me of other book. But it is a beautiful love story.

Totally cannot wait for Revelation! This Book Series...Wow! I am completely hooked. Hurry up 3rd Book!

I'm not a book conisour by any means but I very much enjoyed this book. All the twists and turns. I suspected that Burt was up to something, that he had something to do with Frank's demise. But the betrayal of the female guardian was a surprise. I liked Alexander's "plan" for them to finally be together. I read this book in one day. I couldn't sit down without picking up my kindle to read more. I can't wait to start book 3.

Absolutely. AMAZING! I couldn't put it down! This series is becoming one of my favorites by far! I know I'm going to read it over and over again

Just OK. I liked the premise but found the plot and characters predictable.
