She is a co-author of Pearson's ¿Cómo se aprende el español?, Identities, La escritura paso a paso, and earlier editions of Mosaicos, all published by Prentice Hall.

This was exactly what I needed very wonderful condition.

This Spanish book could have been written better. I used this book for Spanish One and my professor was constantly putting it down and pointing out errors in the book. It did help me to learn some basic Spanish, but it definitely wasn't the best.

it's a text book, required by class. I don't think anyone really buys them because they are looking for them otherwise. It met the teacher's requirement. Textbook rental is great.

The book is nice and it works. But the book did not originally come with the Spanish lab code which it says it does but ended up sending me one.

Does not come with access card as advertised advertised etext access card included but when I received the book it was not. Had to pay another $85 for that. Description should be changed that states it does not include access.
