This is my baby's favorite book. We had another Karen Katz book "Daddy Hugs." I noticed he was more attentive and engaged with "Daddy Hugs," more than other books. With other books, his eyes would wander and he'd get easily distracted. I think he was attracted to the vibrant colors and patterns in "Daddy Hugs." So I decided to order two more Karen Katz books. "Zoom, Zoom, Baby!" gets the most reaction from him because of the flaps. I am considering ordering more "lift-the-flap" books for him. I highly recommend Karen Katz. Other books, like the popular classic "Goodnight Moon" are not as colorful. In fact, "Goodnight Moon" has many pages that are in dull grayscale.. these are the pages that my baby has absolutely no interest in and will start looking away from the book. There's even one page with NO illustrations that reads "goodbye nobody." Seriously?? You're better off with books like Karen Katz's.

Really a cute book! My grandson loved it! He liked the big pictures and the flaps to open. One of his favorite books. Will purchase another in the series!

This is my grandson's FAVORITE book, we read it over and over and over again. He tries reading it to himself turning each page saying "no" and laughing. I can not recommend this book enough!! I also got the Toes, Ears & Nose book and the Where is Baby's Belly Button - they were OK but nothing compared to this book.

My son (14 months) loves the Karen Katz Lift-the-Flap book. He especially loves this one and always wants us to read it. Now when he sees a car he goes mmmm mmmm (zoom zoom). He even points to the garage and says mmmm mmmm.

Our 2 year old LOVES this board book. The story line is simple enough that after reading it twice, he could flip through the book on his own and tell the story by himself. He loves the flaps and thinks it is hilarious that there are things hiding behind them. He's been a bit of a late talker, but we've really watched his vocabulary improve as he's begun to try to "read" books to himself out loud...and this book started it all. We highly recommend it for young children. The book itself is sturdy enough to handle a two year old...our only complaint would be that the flaps themselves are rather thin and probably won't hold up too well, but that is to be expected with a lift-the-flap book. We've definitely already got our moneys worth, and we've only had it a couple of weeks. Buy this book!

My baby and I love the Karen Katz books ( I've purchased the Spanish versions of "Where is Baby's Belly button" and "Peek-a-baby" as I am hoping for her to be bilingual). Decided to purchase this books for as a birthday gift for a two year old. As soon as I received it, I immediately wanted to keep it for my baby! I didn't, but I am hoping that Karen Katz develops more Spanish books. Some of the reviews do mention that there is a repetition of being too babyish. Some of the words can get a bit babyish, but as a parent/grandparent etc., we should have the ability to improvise and adjust as we see fit. Not all children are the same, and I cannot comment on older children but as I've mentioned, my 7 month old LOVES these books.

I bought this for a 1 yr old child, and it's a HIT! I knew the kiddo loved it when he kept picking it from the bookshelf and saying, "Baby Read". He loved the book so much I bought the series written by Katz.

I purchased this for my two year old grandson and with it being a board book, it should last a while. It has the flip out pages and my daughter will be making the sounds. LOL
