Walking In Memphis: 16 Historic Tours

Synopsis

Visit historic Memphis, Tennessee, through 16 self-guided walking tours. From Riverwalk along the Mississippi River to Meeman-Shelby Forest State Park, maps guide your way with photo documentation of each site. Tour Court Square, stroll the Chickasaw Gardens, visit Rhodes College and the Cancer Survivors Park, and see the legendary Graceland, where the memory of Elvis lives on. This walking tour of Memphis will enhance your appreciation of the great city.

Customer Reviews

Ron McDonald is a pastoral counselor, writer, folksinger, and storyteller. A resident of Memphis, he has explored the city's interesting places with his wife and two sons for 25 years.

I am returning this book because it's unusable as a portable guide. The color pictures, of marginal quality, are too large; while the maps and descriptions are too small. Seems the author was writing for a 'coffee table book' that ended up as a poor quality paper back -- felt the binding would crack if opened all the way.
