Transcending My Brooklyn: 4 Years In The Middle East

Synopsis

For almost 4 years, Brooklyn native Hamza Makonnen completely submersed himself in Middle Eastern culture as an English teacher in Saudi Arabia and Kuwait. Through a collection of essays he details life in a region commonly misunderstood in today's world and how it compares to America.

Customer Reviews

I thoroughly enjoyed reading this book, as well as Hamza's previous work. The growth in his writing is apparent and refreshing and the first person perspective of entrenching himself in and adapting to another culture is encouraging. Highly recommended reading.

I loved this book. The writer's point of view is amazing! I truly felt what the author was saying. I recommend this book to everyone, especially young men!

An amazing book! I found myself lost in the book as I read. So much information! This brother is on to great things !!!!

Great read and very well written. If you haven't purchased a copy, definitely would recommend it.

Good quick read.

Great read.
