Customer Reviews

After seen all the TV shows about dancing Salsa it really fired up my imagination to give it a go! Not being able to afford a dance class (yet!) I decided to see what I could learn beforehand and I'm so glad I came across this short but informative book. It provides a great short history to Salsa in the US and gave me all the steps (no pun intended!) to get started and build up the confidence to look for local classes. Salsa is a beautifully sexy dance that can be done with your partner (like me) or I imagine it is a great way to meet like-minded other fit and sexy women! If your even remotely interested in Salsa this is your place to start. Recommended!

Very short book. Contains about the same information that you will get on your first lesson if you take a salsa class. Same information is available for free on many salsa enthusiast web sites. I was hoping for a list of salsa moves with schematics, but no such luck! Not worth the money unless you are an absolute beginner and can't be bothered to search for the information online.

I have been dancing for a few years and would consider myself to be an intermediate dancer. I picked this book up because it looked like a good read. I really enjoyed it. This book not only explains dance styles to get you started, but goes beyond and explains the different countries styles of salsa, health benefits, and mentality required to make you an excellent dancer. 5 stars!!!!

A fabulous book for learning about Salsa a very sexy and sensual dance. The different techniques needed are outlined. Author has written it in a simple language so there is no excuse for anyone wanting to learn this amazing dance not to have a go. Will I learn now I have the book? You bet, Salsa anyone? Well done to the author, I wish you every success.

This is a beginners book for learning about Salsa. Has the different techniques outlined and also certain tips which we need to heed. Author has written it in a simple language which would help people who want to start Salsa to have a fair idea about it.
