Grew up across from Forbes Field...great memories. This book helps to remind me of them.

My husband loves this book. It is an easy read and a must-have for all die-hard Pirates' fans.

very informative book

When we first met Steve Ziants who knew? Who knew he'd survive the '60s? (It was a turbulent decade, ya know.) Who knew he'd grow up to one day commandeer the sports page for a major American city? Who knew he'd one day write the definitive book on one of America's most storied sports franchises? I did. In "100 Things Pirates Fans Should Know & Do Before They Die", brother Steve both fine-tunes the angles in the rear view mirror... and helps the Buccos fans perfect their bucket lists! And he does it with the analytical eye of the astute historian and the passion of the poet. Not too big a stretch to say the book he was born to write. Born to PA parents, a pitcher on the Kent State baseball team, and a rabid wordsmith & sports enthusiast... this book wasn't written with ink, it was written with his blood. Too strong a statement? The proof of the pudding is in the tasting. Take a taste. Fantastic piece of journalism, history and poetry, Steve. Charlie Ziants (rooting from heaven's bleacher section) and the rest of the family are righteously proud. Well done. ~ Micheal Ziants at [...], New Orleans, LA
