The Life Of Reilly: The Best Of Sports Illustrated's Rick Reilly

Synopsis

Witty, irreverent, opinionated, honest, laugh-out-loud funny. These are just a few of the adjectives that have been used to describe the writing of Rick Reilly, the eleven-time National Sportswriter of the Year, who has entertained the readers of Sports Illustrated for 22 years with his unique perspective on the world of sports and life in general. Now, in The Life of Reilly, Rick has selected over 60 of his finest stories to create a collection that will amuse, inform, and provoke sports fans and non-fans alike. The book is organized around Reilly's seven Rs: Rants, Raves, Reality, Roots, Rough, Wrecks, and Royalty. There are features on sports greats, rants against high-profile athletic programs, tales of golfing glory in and out of the spotlight, reflections on enduring values and the true meaning of sacrifice, and personal stories about the Reilly family trials and tribulations and much more! Those of you who know Reilly's work will be pleased to revisit the master; those who don't will be thrilled to discover an extraordinary talent. This book was a New York Times bestseller in hardcover.

Customer Reviews

Enjoyable. Good read, in digestible articles. Reilly is truly one of our best periodical writers working today.

A staple for the library shelf. Want to learn how to be a good writer? Start reading. get ready to laugh and cry.

Rick has found a way to keep his columns going with his book. It is great reading for kick-back time.

This book features some phenomenal writing over sports of all sorts. Its serves as a brilliant snapshot of Rick Reilly's touching, hilarious, and always-captivating column. Absolutely recommended.

Rick's essays are timeless. They make you laugh, cry, and ponder. I look forward to reading his recent compilation. I am surprised that he only won the sportswriter of the Year award 11 times; I cannot imagine giving the award to anybody else. Harold J. Baer, M.D.

Just started this book - GREAT thus far! For all you golfaholics, you must read his golf books "Who's Your Caddy?", "Missing Links", & "Shanks For Nothing" - They're hilarious!!!!

You'll laugh, you'll cry, you will be entertained. Rick Reilly truly has a gift. His stories are short, but poignant, and always funny.

I love sports and I enjoy humor, so you would think I'd like Reilly's book. It's terrible. Don't waste your time reading a few words. Not funny. Not interesting.
