GUYANA A River Jungle Expedition

Synopsis

This expedition travels one-way 700 miles south into the jungles of Guyana's Rain Forest. A total of seven rivers are explored, three of which have never been explored with motorized craft prior to this expedition. Observations of people, terrain, cultures, rivers, animals, flora and fauna are learned and experienced. Information from deep within Guyana's hinterland will be used later to educate and promote mining and tourism opportunities; and enhance local economy. And, the ability, if so desired, to leave things alone just the way they are.
