Customer Reviews

Jessie Haas has owned horses since she was six years old. The author of more than 30 books, her work focuses mostly on horses. She lives with her family in Vermont.

A nice story of a horse and the people who are involved with his care and training. I also learned a little about the quarter horse and the skill of cutting.

This was a gift for a pre-teen girl and was really well received. I would recommend this for young ones.

My daughter loves horses. This book held her attention until the end.

Chico's Challenge is an awesome book!! highly recommend this book to horse lovers of all ages! It is an adventure story.
