White Water Red Hot Lead: On Board U.S. Navy Swift Boats In Vietnam

Synopsis

Firsthand account of action on Swift Boats Written in an engaging, immediate style with touches of humor Compelling account of human courage and friendship During the Vietnam war 3500 officers and men served in the Swift Boat program in a fleet of 130 boats with no armor plating. The boats patrolled the coast and rivers of South Vietnam, with the average age of the crew being twenty-four. Their days consisted of deadly combat, intense lightning firefights, storms and many hidden dangers. This action-packed story of combat written by Dan Daly, a Vietnam combat veteran who was the Officer in Charge of PCF 76 makes you part of the Swift Boat crew. The six man crew of PCF 76 were volunteers from all over the United States, eager to serve their country in a highly unique type of duty not seen since the PT boats of WWII. This inexperienced and disparate group of men would meld into a combat team - a team that formed an unbreakable, lifelong bond. After training they were plunged into a 12 month tour of duty. Combat took place in the closest confines imaginable, where the enemy were hidden behind a passing sand dune or a single sniper could be concealed in an onshore bunker, mines might be submerged at every fork in the river. The enemy was all around you, hiding, waiting, while your fifty-foot Swift Boat works its way upriver. In many cases the rivers became so narrow there was barely room to maneuver or turn around. The only way out might be into a deadly ambush. Humor and a touch of romance relieve the tension in this thrilling ride with America's finest.

I served in Da Nang during the time Dan writes about. I was aboard the YR-71 as we supported the Coasties and the Swift Boats. The book brought back a tremendous number of memories. I am also certain that I probably bumped elbows with Dan either in one of the clubs or if he was having work done on his boat at YR-71. I could not put the book down as each page literally brought back a flood of memories. Dan, thank you for a wonderful read.

Well written, humorous, accurate and highly interesting. As a vet, I found the epilogue particularly moving. Buy it, you'll have a hard time putting it down.

As a former Swift Boat dkipper, this brought back lots of memories, from humorous to terrifying. Well done, Mr. Daly.

Great detail about the Swift boats and the day to day navy life and operations on patrol in Vietnam in the brown water navy. Thank you for your service..

I SERVED ON PCF-9 IN 1965. HIS BOOK BROUGHT BACK MANY MEMORIES !!!

Great read and amazing story of the swift boats. Nice to read without the language and crudeness that so many authors use today.
